The $202.6 million represents three transfers from the 703 Account that occured in August 1998, prior to the time period for which there were available statements for the 703 Account, and therefore is not reflected in the summary of other activity in/out of the 703 Account attached as Exhibit 13. The descriptions for these transactions per the Fidelity 043 Account statements are consistent with the descriptions of the transfers from the 703 Account that we were able to confirm using available statements for the 703 Account. See FMRSAA0119978, FMRSAA0114393 and MADWAA00389894 - 96. In addition, these transactions are reflected as outgoing transfers on the Daily Sheets for the "C.M." account on the corresponding days with a description of "BLM 3SPEC." See MADTSS01310977-81.

<sup>[3]</sup> The statement for October 1998 was not available. The account values represent the values as of 11/1/1998 per the November 1998 statement.

On November 15, 2000, approximately $46 million of Treasury Notes was transferred out of the Fidelity 043 Account to Madoff Securities International Limited for the benefit of Madoff (see UKMSLLWA00004249 - 4251 and UKMSLLWA00004329). On October 30, 2001, approximately $40 million of Federal Home Loan Bank bonds were also transferred out of the Fidelity 043 Account.

<sup>[5] $58</sup> million was transferred from the Fidelity 043 Account to, or for the benefit of, Madoff family members and various charities. Amount includes a $23.5 million transfer to the BONY 621 Account for a repayment of funds to an account at Bank of New York held by Madoff.
